ANACONDA, MONTANA. MONDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 9, 1891.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

CASH CLOTHING CONCERN.

45 EAST PARK ST., BUTTE.

After the Battle.

After the great sale of the past two weeks, during which time we confidently assert that we have sold more Clothing and Overcoats than any other two houses in Butte, it is but natural that we should have a great many odds and ends on hand. We will not, however, ask you full price for them, but will put the knife into them deeper than ever. There are amongst them goods of all kinds and descriptions that are worth fully double what we ask for them. Remember that they are not old and shelf-worn goods, but all new, only having been purchased early last November when we opened. They are also as good to you as if we had a full line of each kind, but being odds with us they must go, and if prices are an object they will go.

Men's Suits.

In addition to the goods already spoken of we have a number of lines of cheap suits which we will sell at special prices this week, amongst which is a good dark brown union at $4.75, reduced from $7, and a steel-gray check at $3.50, reduced from $6. These are really cheap goods and if you want a working suit that will give you satisfaction for the amount of money invested, come in and see us and we will rig you out. We have also lines at $5, $6 and $7, cut from double the money, which are splendid value. They are all wool and fast color which is something that no other house can do. In pants we have an endless variety. We have a number of pants out of suits sold at $20 and $25, the coat and vest being sold, that we now offer at from $3 to $4.50, just half of what they are worth.

Gents' Furnishings

Even at this late date we have been compelled to replenish our stock of underwear owing to our enormous sales lately even at this the dullest season of the year. We are surprised to hear on all sides complaints of dull business, and we can only draw the conclusion that the reason our sales are so large is due to the fact that people begin to realize that a strictly cash store can and does sell goods at a smaller profit than a six-months-time store. Our sales in this department have been very large and as we have a large stock on the way we must clean out what we have before they arrive. We are still offering the great $2 suits and will state that if you want them you had better grab them quick before they are all gone.

LABOR UP ON ITS EAR

Workingmen of Chicago Up in Arms Against the World's Fair Directory.

WANT THEIR PLEDGES KEPT

The Trades Assembly Threaten to Cause Trouble Unless Satisfactory Assurances are Given Against Scab Labor.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Organized labor of Chicago hotly asserted itself today regarding the world's fair. It was at a regular meeting of the trade and labor assembly body, said to represent 47,000 workmen, and one of whose members was given a seat in the world's fair directory in recognition of the $30,000 subscribed by workmen to the guarantee fund of the fair. Intense interest is manifested in the subject as there has been much discussion beforehand in meetings of individual unions. The excitement began when James O'Connell, president of the assembly, offered resolutions that when it was first proposed to hold the World's Columbian exposition in Chicago, organized labor was appealed to by the promoters of that institution to assist them in securing needed legislation in favor of Chicago. That members of various trades unions and labor organizations of Chicago subscribed liberally to the stock; that implied inducements were held out by the promoters to the working people of Chicago that in all work done on buildings, union labor should be recognized and have preference over scab labor, and that the present world's fair directory indicates a disposition to refuse to employ indiscriminately non-union labor, thereby flooding the labor market of Chicago with the ultimate design of destroying the trades unions.

Resolved, That we, as union men, protest against this treacherous action of the World's fair directors, and unless immediate action is taken by that body to rescind their implied pledges given in regard to union labor, that we shall deem it our duty to oppose in every way any further legislation, either municipal, state or national, in favor of said exposition; and we hereby recommend all workmen who subscribed for stock, to decline to pay any further assessments until proper assurances are given that the implied pledges will be kept, and be it further

Resolved, That unless satisfactory assurances are given by the directors that their indicated action be changed, we shall deem it our duty to ask the co-operation of organized labor to assist us in making our protest, emphatic.

In an instant a dozen men were on the floor, and peppy speeches, containing some pointed personalities, followed. O'Connell said: "We will make the directory put a regiment of soldiers around the grounds if they employ scab labor. The day has passed when organized labor can be ignored in great public enterprises of this kind."

The resolutions were carried without opposition. A committee was appointed to work in conjunction with committees appointed by the Central Labor union and the Carpenters' council, and these committees, it is understood, will wait on the mayor and ask him to issue a manifesto showing the number and condition of the laboring men of Chicago. They will also go before the world's fair directors with the above resolutions, and ask further that eight hours constitute a day's work in the construction of the world's fair buildings.

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS.

A Possibility That the Silver Bill May be Taken Up by Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Congress made rapid progress during the past week in the transaction of public business, but it is the general supposition that it will do even more work daily hence forward. In the senate this week the naval appropriation bill will probably be called to-morrow after final action is reached on the eight-hour bill, and the District of Columbia and diplomatic and consular appropriation bill will be reported from the committee during the week. Other measures that will probably intervene are the copyright bill, Indian appropriation bill and Nicaragua canal bill. It is within the bounds of possibility that an effort will be made to attach a free silver coinage rider to one of the appropriation bills, in which case some delay may result.

The appropriations bill will probably continue to absorb nearly all the time of the house for some days to come and the prospect for any general legislation during this week is not bright. The silver bill and the report of the Raun investigation committee are subjects which may be precipitated upon the house during the week, but in what form it is impossible to predict.

Death of Two Millionaires.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Feb. 8.—John McKeown, a millionaire oil producer, died at his home this morning, aged 53. He had been troubled for months with difficulty in breathing, attributed to asthma. His wealth is estimated at $5,000,000.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 8.—J. N. McCullough, first vice-president of the Pennsylvania line west of Pittsburgh and a central figure in railroad management for 30 years, died at his residence in Allegheny City this morning of general debility. His estate is said to be worth over $10,000,000.

The New Italian Cabinet.

ROME, Feb. 8.—The following cabinet will be officially announced to-morrow, with the probable addition of Villard as minister of education: Marquis De Rudini, premier; minister of foreign affairs, ad interim and minister marine, Signor Colombo; minister of finance, Necocieri; interior, Luzzatti; treasury, Pelloux; war, Brancati; public works ad interim and posts and telegraphs, Ferraris.

Storm in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Feb. 8.—There was a heavy snow storm here to-day, nearly blocking the street car traffic. Reports from all portions of the state show the storm was very severe. In the northwestern part a blizzard has been raging for 12 hours and people dare not venture away from their houses. In the southern part the snow drifted from four to ten feet deep.

WINDOM'S SUCCESSOR.

A Rumor That John C. New Will Be the Next Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—A gentleman of more than local prominence, who has long been identified with public affairs and is reported to be thoroughly informed regarding the inside workings of the present administration, and who has just returned from a visit to Washington, said today: "Thursday afternoon last, President Harrison called General John C. New, consul general at London, to come to Washington at once. It will be remembered when Harrison was making up his cabinet New was anxious to be appointed secretary of the treasury, but friends urged upon him he could not then afford to sacrifice the consul generalship for secretary of the treasury. The consul generalship would certainly yield him $35,000 annually, and besides would give him many legitimate opportunities for increasing that sum. Unless New decides that the handsome income from the consul generalship, with its freedom from care is better than the secretaryship's with its perplexities, (leaving out impulses of ambition) probably he will be the next secretary of the treasury. This is the settled opinion of those who are best informed as to the president's purpose. It is known New has studied the whole British question thoroughly from an international standpoint. As he is a man of great discretion and caution, besides being thoroughly American, his views are of the greatest importance to Harrison, who fully realizes this, as he knows that he will want at his command the best, fullest and most accurate sources of information. This fact alone makes New the strongest possible candidate for secretary of the treasury."

AN OLD-FASHIONED STORM.

South Dakota Is Treated to a Blizzard Equal to That of '88.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8.—At noon today snow began to fall in this city and there has been promise of a blizzard during the afternoon. The storm is pretty general in the Northwest, although North Dakota seems to have escaped to a considerable extent. In South Dakota the storm that raged at Rapid City extended over the entire state. Aberdeen, Huron, Pierre and other points report a very severe blizzard.

A Pioneer Press correspondent at Pierre, S. D., says the worst blizzard since '88 has been raging there since last night, with little prospect of cessation. The thermometer went as low as 20 below this morning, and it has been freezing all day. It is doubtful if trains will be able to get through.

A Huron correspondent says the snow storm to-night developed into a gigantic blizzard, almost equal in fury to that of January, 1888, the wind blowing at a velocity of from 35 to 40 miles per hour.

ITALY'S NEW PREMIER.

Marquis di Rudini Declares Himself Thoroughly Liberal.

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—The Rome correspondent of the Berliner Tagblatt has had an interview with Marquis di Rudini, the new Italian prime minister. In the course of conversation the Marquis declared himself thoroughly liberal, and expressed confidence that he would receive the support of the whole chamber. He said while he was no friend of clericalism, he considered the systematic persecution of the church to be both useless and objectionable. He predicted the abolition of the system of voting known as scrutin de liste. A dissolution of parliament, he said, was not contemplated by the new ministry. Touching upon foreign affairs, the premier described himself as a warm friend of the dreibund. In regard to the domestic policy of the ministry he said that retrenchments were projected in every department of the government.

At 7 o'clock to-night the thermometer was 16 below at St. Vincent, Minn.; 12 below at Minnecola, eight below at Fort Buford, and four below at Moorhead, Minn. The blizzard did not appear in North Dakota to-night, but is confined to South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin, being severest in South Dakota.

A MURDEROUS SOCIETY.

Organized for the Purpose of Avenging the Wrongs Done Its Members.

SHENANDOAN, Pa., Feb. 8.—William and George Butsairag, Matt Moldazas and John Lalunikus, four Poles, have been committed to the county jail in default of $2,500 bail each for murderously clubbing and stabbing five of their fellow countrymen who were instrumental in having a friend of one of the accused sent to jail for assault and battery. The men named are the ring-leaders in a society which has for its main object the avenging of wrongs done its members and the payment of all expenses of members who get into trouble before court. The discovery of the society's existence is of great importance. Of late it has been almost impossible for the commonwealth to convict Poles of crimes on account of the testimony put up in favor of the accused. This kind of testimony is now believed to have been supplied by professional witnesses, members of the society.

Condemning Parnell's Conduct.

DUBLIN, Feb. 8.—A pastoral letter from the Catholic primate was read in Catholic churches throughout Ireland to-day condemning Parnell's conduct, and warning those engaged in the Bologne negotiations to take care the compromise reached be definite, as the country will have the last word to say on this issue.

Western Trains Delayed.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 8.—At midnight the thermometer ranged about zero and a strong wind is blowing. The snow fall at this place is very light. Hastings and Nelson to the west report heavy snows and a blizzard raging. All through trains from the west are delayed.

Sunk With All On Board.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The steamer Chiswick, bound from Cardiff to St. Nazaire with a cargo of coal, struck a sand bank off Cleary Island Thursday and sank. The captain and ten seamen were drowned.

WHAT IS THE REMEDY?

Rev. Mr. Rounder Discourses on the Temptations of Messenger Boys.

HOW CAN THEY KEEP GOOD

Lads of Ten or Twelve Years Sent on Errands to the Lowest Dives in Butte—Facts For a Sermon.

BUTTE, Feb. 8.—The Rev. Mr. Rounder preached his regular Sunday evening discourse at his home this evening. His subject was "Butte's Messenger Boys." In substance he said: "I was among those who looked on at the 'chippie' masquerade at Caplice hall last Wednesday evening. It was a place where only those should be who were reeled and hardened in sin, who were irreclaimable. I noticed among the maskers a girl clad in a complete suit of the Independent District Messenger service. The suit was a messenger suit from can to stockings with the letters 'I. D.' as usual on the breast. The inquiry arose in my mind as it must have arisen in the minds of all who thought at all, where the girl got the suit. It fitted well and to all appearances the girl had exchanged with a lad of just her own size. Of course she may have obtained the suit from her brother, but it was not likely.

"Among the spectators at the masquerade were a small army of messenger boys. Whether or not the girl obtained her suit legitimately, it cannot be denied that this disolute dance was no place for boys whose ages must have ranged from 12 to 15 years of age. The boys seemed to be on the most familiar terms with the dissolute women who capered about in masks and tights. The women chatted and joked with the boys and the boys chatted and joked with the women. "I suppose the messenger boys of Butte are as good as any in Butte. But how in the name of God Almighty is it within the range of possibility for a boy to keep good when he is sent into temptation every day? The women of ill repute like to have a messenger boy around, and they are the best customers for the messenger service. If they want a bottle of beer or a lunch from a restaurant, they ring for a messenger boy to get it for them. If they have no other friends with them, they often ask the boy to share their beer or their lunch. I can cite a case where a messenger boy was hired by the hour to sit up with a sick woman of bad character to attend to her wants while she was confined to bed. Messenger boys are called to take women of this class to the opera, or to a ball or some other amusement, and are called again to escort them home, sometimes in a drunken condition. "How can a boy in the employ of the messenger service keep up to be anything better than a rascal himself, when such temptations confront him? I would like to get the ear of some orthodox clergyman and I would give him some facts for a sermon that would make his hair curl. I don't know whether my creed is Mohammedan or Buddhist, but I do know that it is a horrible thing for these boys, some of whom are not more than 10 years of age, to be thrown in almost daily intercourse with dissolute women. If I had a son I had rather 10,000 times over see him laid in his coffin than see him become a messenger boy, with the future that is inevitably before the messenger boys of Butte.

"What is the remedy?" It is all right to have messenger boys. But by law or in some way it should be provided that the boys should never be allowed to respond to a call to a house of ill fame or in any way be allowed to come into contact with women of the lower class."

HIGHBINDERS AT WORK.

Sanjo-Faced Murderers Forsake the Pistol for the Knife.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—As a result of the police crusade against the highbinders, the Chinese have forsaken the pistol for the knife. The Chinese new year was ushered in last night by two stabbing affrays in Chinatown which will probably prove fatal to two men. Sam Bing was stabbed by Ah Kit, a fellow workman, who owed him money. Shortly after Sam Kin was found lying covered with blood in a doorway. He had been cut in four places. None of the assailants were captured. More trouble is feared, as the new year festivities are in full blast, and the highbinders are under the influence of liquor.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

Guatemala and Honduras Sign an Alliance Against San Salvador.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 8.—It is reported here that a secret alliance has been signed between Guatemala and Honduras against San Salvador. A Guatemalan dispatch says General Cayetano Sanchez died today at Faltanango from shot wounds inflicted by soldiers. General Sanchez was arrested several days ago for insubordination. Yesterday he attempted to escape, firing at the guards. The soldiers returned the fire, fatally wounding him. The government has ordered a court of inquiry in the case. Guatemala is preparing for war, and bringing its army up to the standard required by law.

Opening a Bridge.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 8.—The Canadian Pacific bridge across Fraser river at Mission station was opened yesterday.

The expected line to the boundary will be completed in two months, when through trains between Vancouver and Seattle will be put on, connecting at Mission with transcontinental trains. The time occupied between Seattle and Vancouver will be five hours.

A Flea in Salisbury's Ear.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—The Chronicle this morning, says: "Mail advices show we have lately come dangerously near to forfeiting the allegiance of Newfoundland. We hope Salisbury has profited from the lesson of such disregard of colonial wishes."

They Saw Butte, Anyhow.

BUTTE, Feb. 8.—Most of the Iowa witnesses who were brought here for the Davis trial returned home this evening. They will come back probably in April. Their fares here and back were amounted to about $1,500, and their hotel bill was nearly $1,000.

FURAY DIDN'T GET IN.

A Man in Boyce's Store Threatens to Blow a Hole Through the Marshal.

By the Standard's Special Wire.

BUTTE, Feb. 9.—The legal fight between the sheriff and the United States marshal with many prominent lawyers on each side, over the possession of the store and goods of the firm of J. R. Boyce & Co., was renewed with increased energy this morning. All the afternoon and evening there were a number of prominent lawyers and claimants against the estate at work preparing papers to be issued as soon as the Sabbath was ended. James A. Talbot, Andrew J. Davis, County Clerk Booth and Lawyer James W. Forbis were in the office of the county clerk and district court clerk for several hours during the day. Promptly on the stroke of 12 o'clock, midnight, they all emerged into the corridor of the court house and handed several legal looking documents to Under Sheriff Gallagher. These documents were extra attachments which had been issued against the real property of J. R. Boyce, Jr. The writ mentioned in detail the property which Mr. Boyce is supposed to own, including his residence in this city, some city lots and mining claims. Under Sheriff Gallagher in a few moments had the attachment filed, as County Clerk Booth was right there to receive them. This part of the programme was all over by 12 o'clock. At the same time Will L. Clark, clerk of the district court, entered the court house and it was known there was other fish to fry in the legal pan, and it was out in a moment in the form of an attachment issued by Corbett & Welton and Toole & Wallace, on behalf of French, Van Syck & Co., for $2,346.61. At this time attorney Corbett and United States Marshal Furay drove up to serve an attachment for J. V. Farwell & Co. It is claimed for this firm that the sale was fraudulently made and they demanded the goods sent to Boyce, amounting to about $10,000. Farwell's agent was at the store and said he could pick out the goods at once. The sheriff refused this service. Then the parties went to Corbett's office and revolvers were prepared. At 1:30 o'clock this morning the sheriff was again routed out of bed, but again he refused the service.

After the sheriff refused service on the papers at the hands of Marshal Furay the latter threw the papers at the sheriff's feet and went down town to demand admission to the store. He made the demand and this is how he succeeded. Going to the side door of the store the marshal knocked.

Marshal Furay—"Hello, in there?"

Voice inside—"What do you want?"

Furay—"I want to come in."

Voice inside—"Who are you?"

"Marshal Furay."

Mat inside—"You can't get in."

Furay—"Then you absolutely refuse to let me in?"

Voice inside—"Yes, and if you don't get away from there I'll plug a hole through you?"

Then Marshal Furay stepped down from the stoop where Under Sheriff Gallagher was standing.

"Who is that fellow in there?"

"Why?" asked the under sheriff.

"He said he'd put a hole through me if I didn't get away from that door."

"I'll see that that man's salary is raised the first thing in the morning," said the under sheriff with a smile.

"I've a notion to go and kick the door down," said the marshal.

"Yes, I would if I were you," said the under sheriff. "There are only about a dozen men in there like that one who spoke." The marshal turned away and went to bed.

A CARNIVAL OF FIRE.

Incendiaries Attempt to Destroy Sioux City, Iowa—Two Children Cremated.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Feb. 8.—An alarm of fire was turned in from the Hunt school building at 7:30 this evening. A high wind was prevailing, and the entire fire department responded. While the companies were working on this fire, another alarm was turned in from a four-story brick occupied by Tolerton & Stetson, wholesale grocers. The firm is one of the largest in Iowa, doing a heavy business in Nebraska, South Dakota and Iowa. The buildings, together with their contents were entirely destroyed. The total loss is $20,000; insurance, $130,000. While the fire was raging in the grocery house, Lyons' gun store, less than two blocks away, was discovered to be on fire. The badly crippled fire department sent one hose team to work on the building, but it being a two-story wooden structure, when burned together with its contents. The upper floor was occupied by two families and it is reported two children have been burned to death, but this can not be verified. Those who were able to be out, and the numbered thousands, gave the firemen valuable assistance. The fires were clearly the work of incendiaries, done, it is supposed, for the purpose of robbery. It is now thought by many it is the same gang that tried to burn the little town of Covington, just across the river, three weeks ago. An attempt was made at 11:30 to start another fire in a second-hand store on Pearl street but the blaze was discovered in time to prevent much damage.

WILL APPEAL TO ROME.

A Union Composed of English-Speaking Priests Organized at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 8.—The organization here of an American Catholic clerical union, composed of English-speaking priests of the Milwaukee province, is interpreted as the first step in what may be a bitter contest against German supremacy. For years the archbishop and three bishops of the province have been Germans, and German priests outnumber the English-speaking priests three to one, although numerically, the English speaking laity is full as strong as the German. The recent appointment of Bishop Katzer as archbishop was a great disappointment to the English clergy who have now formed an organization, with the view of securing proper recognition, and they will appeal direct to Rome for the appointment of an American to succeed Bishop Katzer.

A Meeting of Royalists.

PARIS, Feb. 8.—At a meeting of 300 royalists in Nimes to-day, Comte d'Pauzonville denounced the Lavergie doctrine of adhesion to the republic. He said he recognized Cardinal Lavergie's authority in matters of religion, but not in those of politics. The speaker's sentiments were loudly applauded by the meeting.

BOSS DUBOIS AT WORK

His Forces at Boise City Getting a Move on Themselves.

CLAGGETT MEN STAND FIRM

It is Asserted on Good Authority That the Senate Will Seat Judge Claggett if He is Elected To-Morrow.

Special to the Standard.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Feb. 8.—A tremendous amount of work has been done by the Dubois men to-day notwithstanding the divine command prohibits all labor on the Sabbath. Representative Sawyer, of Custer, has received a telegram from Senator Shoup almost commanding him, for the sake of friendship, not to vote for the resolution and to stand by Dubois. Mr. Sawyer laughs at it and is showing the message to everyone. Offers of all kinds are being made for votes but Claggett's forces stand firm. It would now appear that Dubois is very much interested in the outcome, even if it is a coup or a farce as they call it. It is a sure thing that the resolution will be adopted to-morrow and that Judge Claggett will be elected senator on Tuesday. It is claimed positively that the senate will seat him.

STURCK BY A GIGANTIC WAVE.

Passengers on an Ocean Steamship Have a Narrow Escape From a Watery Grave.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The steamship Polaria, regarding whose safety much anxiety has been felt, reached port tonight, five days overdue, her foremost gone, engines out of order, and presenting a battered appearance generally. Captain George Busch said: "The 27th of January was a particularly stormy day. In the afternoon a gigantic wave struck us, and tons of water came rolling on deck. Above the din of the surging waters a sharp crash was heard and the big foremost was seen hanging level with the main deck over the starboard side. The forward bulwarks had been carried away and could be seen dancing off on the wave crests. The stairs leading from the quarter deck to the main deck were gone and the sheet iron end of the cabin burst in. Portions of the bridge were missing, the iron guard rail was broken and a small boat had been carried off. It was a narrow escape from an ocean grave. No one, fortunately, was seriously injured."

HARRINGTON REPLIES.

Archbishop Walsh Advised Not to Commit Priests to a Policy Too Hastily.

DUBLIN, Feb. 8.—Several Irish bishops, following the example set by Archbishop Walsh, have written letters to the clergy of their dioceses in opposition to Harrington's appeal to members of the National league to reorganize in view of the general elections. Archbishop Walsh advised the clerical members of the league to combat such Parnellite "packing" by refusing to join in such trickery. In reply to Archbishop Walsh, Harrington says the archbishop misjudges the object of the league's circular, which is similar to those issued annually by the league. Harrington says he informed Dillon and O'Brien before issuing the circular that in consequence of the collapse of the American tour he had determined to ask the league branches to help the evicted tenants. Harrington advises the archbishop not to commit the priests too hastily to a policy that will lead to two hostile camps in every parish.

MINES OF PONY.

A Large Body of Gold Bearing Ore Encountered in the Clipper.

PONY, Feb. 7.—A large body of ore running well in free gold has been encountered in the west extension of the Clipper mine. This property is owned by W. A. McKaskle. The strike is made at a depth of 600 feet and bears strong evidence of the permanence of the gold veins of this district.

A new tunnel has been started on the Galena mine to drain the large body of water recently found and opened up in a new level.

Development work is progressing steadily on the Eureka mine at Baldy under direction of Professor Veedin. The Little Kid mine in the same vicinity shows a body of ore 1,000 feet in length from four to ten feet in thickness which averages well in gold.

The deep tunnel which is being run on one of the veins of the Ingomar group continues in ore which increases in value as depth is attained.

It is rumored that the Revenue, one of Montana's richest gold mines, will be worked extensively during the coming summer.

Bribing the Porter.

Professional guide (to palace car porter)—I have an English lord in charge and I want him to get a fair impression of the comforts of travel in this country. Here's $5.

Porter—Yes, sah. Do you want me to give him extra attention, sah?

Guide—Great Scott, no! I want you to keep away from him.
